Annual Spring Dermatology Review 2007

For Family Physicians

COURSE OVERVIEW

This one and a half day conference is designed to provide a solid curriculum of fundamental dermatology education for practitioners who already have considerable experience. The format will be short lectures, and case presentations, with particular emphasis on audience participation. The interactive discussions are designed to address the problems facing conference participants in their daily practice.

The course is the result of collaboration between the UBC Department of Dermatology and Skin Science and UBC Division of Continuing Professional Development and Knowledge Translation. The speakers are drawn from the considerable resources of the Department of Dermatology and Skin Science.
